

Please do not tamper with Wisconsin's No-Call List. It's a pleasant experience to sit down to a meal after a day of work and enjoy it without being constantly interrupted with intrusive telephone calls. The calls should be considered an invasion of privacy and there should be Federal Laws prohibiting ANY unsolicited phone calls from business organizations, with the possible exception of charitable organizations. "NO" should mean NO.